

Clinical Nurse Specialist– Adult/Gerontology Certificate

The School of Nursing is pleased to offer the new Clinical Nurse Specialist–Adult/Gerontology Capstone Certificate program. It is designed to provide masters'-prepared nurses with the specific education, training, and academic credentials required to sit for national certification as a Clinical Nurse Specialist and practice more effectively within the CNS role.

Admission will open in May 2017 and classes will begin in September 2017. Students will enter the three-semester program in the fall term and move through the curriculum as a cohort, completing the certificate after the summer term. The fall and spring semesters will feature a course-pairing of theory and clinical application.
